

In San Diego we don't have a new station like Los Angeles and Orange Counties do. I need local traffic information. Just because I pay to subscribe to a service shouldn't deny me this valuable information. Seems to me by allowing this broadcast service it is enhancing competition. A good thing for us consumers, don't you think?